

REPORT OF THE BRUNEL TROPHY CONTRACT BRIDGE COMPETITION 2008

In 2008 the competition returned to where it was first held at the Young Chelsea Bridge Club in Earls Court, London on 10 October. Nine teams entered and the competition was as always fierce.

The winners from the previous year returned to retain the trophy- a scratch team consisting of Andrew and Liz Cleary, Paul Lamford and Stefanie Rohan. Congratulations are due to them all and well played to all the other players.

After the bridge the evening dinner was taken in the nearby Little French restaurant. This is a very pleasant and intimate local restaurant which looked after us well.
